

LEROY YOUNG

At his hometown and our capital city, in Berlin, Leroy Young began his career as a DJ in 1998.

In the first years he started travelling through small clubs in Berlin to follow his hobby and to enjoy the music under the name Bendixx.

After some years and many gigs some artists and managers became attentive on him and gave him the possibility to play and perform in bigger clubs of Germany.

In addition to that he also organised his own events which acquired renown him as a small organizer.

With the help from Roberto Mozza and Marcio Kantana he produced several EP's under the label Plattenbau-Music and Aspect Records since 2006. Together with Roberto Mozza and Oberon, he played many gigs in Germany and East Europe where his musical style matured on and on.

Leroy Young is like a sponge he first sops everything up to afterwards deliver it within the agreed time in his sets. His sets are individual and go into the direction TechHouse, DeepHouse and SuperHouse. He is always available to celebrate his music together with the audience.
